2021 WINTER EDITION

Escape with us for the Winter!

Warm up with a hot new season experience.

Theatre is such a wonderful experience, but at the end of the day (or night) it's nothing without you.

If last year taught us anything, it's that while we love watching a group of artists transform live performance into something extraordinary, the work only truly comes to life when it meets you.

Only by coming together do we get to experience the power and joy of performance. Theatre is ordinary life, amplified. Done right and we get to inhabit other worlds, examine different lives, think new thoughts and escape the everyday.

This year we're exploring lots of new places. It's not all happy endings, but hopefully you will join us on this adventure. We're ready to take you somewhere unexpected.

As Travis and Gutjuk journey through the outback they begin to earn each other's trust, but when the truths of Travis' past actions are suddenly revealed, it is he who becomes the hunted.

Jekyll & Hyde: A Slightly Isolated Dog

5

Tuesday 8 June 2021

Meet the most delightfully evil man alive, Mr Hyde. A man so evil he punches the cleaning lady, drop-kicks a precious puffin and yells 'shark' at the beach.

This mad-cap rendition of Jekyll and Hyde celebrates the darkness within us all. A completely reworked version of Robert Louis Stevenson's Edinburgh inspired novella, this terrifyingly hilarious theatre comedy plays at Assembly George Square Gardens this Fringe.

Jekyll is a man who washes and separates his recycling AND puts it in the correct bin. Hyde is the man who drains the last of the toilet roll and never replaces it, who draws the shared flat account to buy cigarettes and never, ever calls you by your given name. Who does that?

Who is this mad man?

Dirt Music

Wednesday 14 July 2021

Georgie Jutland (Kelly Macdonald) is barely holding it together these days without a drink. Once a nurse, now she's trapped in the backwater fishing port of White Point with local crayfish baron, Jim Buckridge (David Wenham) and his two sons, whose dead mother she can never hope to replace.

One hazy night she sees the lone figure of Lu Fox (Garret Hedlund) appear in the mists of the bay. A long time ago he was a dirt musician, but now he survives as a poacher - an unwise choice given Jim's iron-grip on the local fishing trade. Georgie is instantly drawn to Lu, and the pair begin an intense affair. What Georgie doesn't realise is that the Foxes and the Buckridges have a long, murky history. Dirt Music is a tale of love and redemption, set against the awe-inspiring backdrop of Western Australia.
